COVID-19
UPDATES

We are hoping that there will be some changes to communicate soon!!!!
Please keep an eye out for emails from the office regarding upcoming changes.

During this time please know as soon as things change we will communicate it with all of you! Please make sure you have the church office emails marked “safe” so they aren’t going into your spam folder. Lots of information is coming your way via email and we don’t want anyone to miss out!

Needs

During this time, our need for each other is much greater. Our lack of social interaction is hard by design. Please if you find yourself in need of contact, reach out! Call, zoom, facetime, whatever it is... reach out. If you need a directory I can email you one, email me: office@welcometopcf.org.

If you find yourself in financial need please don’t hesitate to reach out. Let me know or contact the deacon team directly at: deacons@welcometopcf.org

Tithe

Offerings are still be counted and deposited weekly. If you are sending in your tithe, they are getting deposited! There is a box outside the main doors now if you would like to drop off your tithes instead of mailing. Otherwise, mailing and Tithe.ly.com work as well.

Facebook and Youtube

Facebook and Youtube are where you will find much of our communication. We are trying our best to keep all updates and changes here and on our website. Messages will be uploaded to Youtube, shared on Facebook and uploaded onto our website. We are also loading the audio on the website if video is hard for you to stream. Please join us in these media areas and stay up to date with us!

Dear PCF Family & Friends -

A friend sent this to me. It's written by David Sliker, a man I do not know. However - I believe it is Spirit inspired. I invite you to ponder it deeply. I ask you to begin praying this for ourselves, and our congregation. If we want the presence and impact of Christ Jesus in and through our Body, this defines the doorway more clearly and concisely than anything I have ever read.

When we pray, "Come Lord Jesus!", it's not only for His return - but here and now in us. I John 4:17

I love you,
Kurt

Jesus – as He Is By David Sliker

One of the most fascinating things to ponder about Jesus is what it would be like to know a Man who had no trace of cynicism, pessimism, world weary, worn down complaint and unfulfilled bitterness related to regret, or offense, or petty spite. He is a Man with no insecurity, no need for our approval, or any desire to use us for His own emotional gain or personal benefit. He loves and enjoys us with a free heart with no brokenness.

When I think about Jesus, I try to picture what it would be like to interact with a Man for whom everything is like the first time, every experience is new, and fresh, and still full of the life and joy of unspoiled surprise.

I think that's the word: "unspoiled". Jesus was a Man untouched by the defilement of the world around Him, a Man unmoved by the cynicism and negativity of His generation. He was like a child in the best sense of what endless wisdom looks like when expressed through unspoiled anticipation.

What would it be like to experience the full spectrum of the pain and the messiness of the human condition, yet remain fresh and vibrant, bursting with the hope of new possibilities connected to an endless fountain of delight and wonder? What was it like to interact with a man who knew no sin?

What's astonishing to me is that the interior life of the Holy Spirit offers us the invitation to both know Jesus in this way now and repent and reach for the grace to experience this ourselves. We can have the cynicism, the weariness, the bitterness washed from our hearts today.

We can experience the freshness of a life unspoiled and the renewal of joy unspeakable, if we want to. That is the beauty and glory of what the life of Christ offers to us - daily and continually - as we drink of His streams of living waters, and the "sap" of His vine as we abide in Him.

Maranatha!

office hours

you've got questions... we might have answers

This image made me smile... I will do my best to get you what you need! Always. With today's struggles we find ourselves in, know we as PCF are here. I am in the office twice a week, but my "set hours" are as close to normal on Mondays and Wednesdays I can make them. If you have a need and haven't been able to get me, call me personally: 360-710-9206 or email the office. I will get back to you. I have your back! Praying for all of you—April Congratulations to our high school and college graduates this year! You made it!

Congratulations
