Marriage Is

By: Kurt Mach

This is marriage; each one contributing what the other could not, each receiving what the other adds, becoming more together than we could ever be without each other in God's great gift to us both.

Marriage is... God's idea.

Then God said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness; let them have dominion over... the earth." So God created man in His own image; in the image of God He created him; male and female He created them.

So, God made everything that is, then He made Adam, and then...

The LORD God said, "It is not good that man should be alone; I will make him a helper comparable to him."

And the LORD God caused a deep sleep to fall on Adam, and he slept; and He took one of his ribs, and closed up the flesh in its place. Then the rib which the LORD God had taken from man He made into a woman, and He brought her to the man.

And Adam said:

"This is now bone of my bones

And flesh of my flesh;

She shall be called Woman,

Because she was taken out of Man."

Therefore a man shall leave his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and they shall become one flesh.

God joins a man and a woman together in marriage as one life; each contributors, each recipients and beneficiaries of what the other gives, each one bringing something of God's own nature the other does not have without them. Two become inseparable and interdependent, relying on God's provision through the other.

In marriage, as no other human relationship, Christ offers to reveal the power of His promised provision. "A new command I give you: Love one another. As I have loved you, so you must love one another."

We all remain flawed and human. Marriage does not run on auto-pilot. It requires work.

Healthy marriages endure and thrive on purpose. Strained marriage happen by default from neglect.

No one wants our marriages to thrive in great blessing and reward more than God, and He will give all the help we need along the way. He is the first one we should include, and the last one we should leave out.
