MEMORIZING SCRIPTURE

ADMIT -

Romans 3:23 For all have sinned and fall short of the glory of God.

In our year of memorizing scripture we will be looking at verses that lend themselves to us sharing the gospel truth with others. Each month we will have a new verse and a word about that verse to memorize, each will build towards a group of scriptures that point to the truth of who God is, what He did for us and who we are in relation to Him. Not only are they good reminders, but a great framework to share your faith! Join us!

Expectations

In our "Right Now!!!" gotta have it world, how much does righteousness and faith actively, patiently, willingly wait for in hope... confident expectation with pleasure?

We just looked at some new and unexpected things God brought into some people's lives at the First Christmas: Mary & Joseph, Zacharias & Elizabeth, Simeon, Anna, a group of lowly shepherds and some wealthy, heathen foreigners. Oh, yeah... and Herod. Things God had already promised, but only one of them expected to receive.

What are some things He has promised He hasn't delivered yet? Do you think He may bring any of them forth in our lives in 2026? In yours?

Acts 1:9-11, Now when He had spoken these things, while they watched, He was taken up, and a cloud received Him out of their sight. And while they looked steadfastly toward heaven as He went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel, who also said, "Men of Galilee, why do you stand gazing up into heaven? This same Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will so come in like manner as you saw Him go into heaven."

I Corinthians 15:51-54, Behold, I tell you a mystery: We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed—in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality. So when this corruptible has put on incorruption, and this mortal has put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written: "Death is swallowed up in victory."

I Thessalonians 4:14-17, For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so God will bring with Him those who sleep in Jesus. For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain until the coming of the Lord will by no means precede those who are asleep. For the Lord Himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And thus we shall always be with the Lord.

Do any of you hope to be here for that fulfillment? I do. But I don't know. To come with Him when He returns will be spectacular, too.

How about any personal promises The Lord has made to you that are yet to happen, like Simeon? Have you waited a long time? How about Joseph, languishing in prison, falsely accused and forgotten?

Psalms 105:19, Until the time that his word came to pass, the word of the Lord tested him.

How are you handling the wait? How about Abraham. God promised him when he was 75 years old he would have a son by Sarah. He was 100 years old and it hadn't happened yet. Where do we park those promises while we wait... maybe a long time? Do we put them on a shelf? Do we take them out and dust them off regularly? Do we keep them alive?

Hebrews 11:12-13, Therefore from one man, and him as good as dead, were born as many as the stars of the sky in multitude—innumerable as the sand which is by the seashore. These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off were assured of them, embraced them and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

Have you considered that some of His promises to you may be fulfilled after He returns? What is He waiting for? The fullness of time again. Time to draw more to Christ, that He have the full reward for the price He paid.

II Peter 3:8-9, But, beloved, do not forget this one thing, that with the Lord one day is as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day. The Lord is not slow concerning His promise, as some count slowness, but is patient toward us, not willing that any should perish but that all should come to repentance.

How should we then live?

Psalm 37:3-7,

Trust in the Lord, and do good;

Dwell in the land, and feed on His faithfulness.

Delight yourself also in the Lord,

And He shall give you the desires of your heart.

Commit your way to the Lord,

Trust also in Him,

And He shall bring it to pass.

He shall bring forth your righteousness as the light,

And your justice as the noonday.

Rest in the Lord, and wait patiently for Him

Happy New Year!!

PCF Classes

We are hoping to begin offering classes throughout the year here at PCF. To start we are offering an introduction to teaching a class at PCF on the 2nd and 4th Sundays after service. Mark your calendars if you are interested or reach out to the office with questions. This time will be for about an hour after service and we will go over the requirements to host a class and some of the basic expectations on teachers. Also, we will go over some basic classroom management scenarios and the options you have for topics, curriculum and types of programs. We hope you will join us!
