Who Is Christ Jesus?

And who are you in relationship to Him?

*Some of you thought... Duh. That may mean you think you know Him too well, or you may not know Him well enough. The bottom line is, bringing out only a little of the substantial scriptural verification, He IS God! Very importantly, He is God revealed to us as a human being. John 1:1-2 & 18, and Colossians 2:9.

Who are you in relationship to Him? Fortunately, He has given much instruction and offers many examples of how we can be in relationship with Him; given our many variations of the types of people humanity is made of.

Because He IS The Word, He is revealing Himself cover to cover in His Word, Genesis to Revelation. He is also revealed interacting with all manner of people, from Adam to His best friend while He walked among us, the Apostle John, and everyone in between. We have four historical accounts of His flesh and blood life among us in Matthew, Mark, Luke and John. The good news is, He is still writing His story and we are included. Our life with Him is a life of faith, so I encourage you to not take too much for granted. I also hope you are purposed to discover more of the answers to both questions as you continue to pursue your own relationship with Him.

How can we help each other along? I am going to offer four things. First, there are three messages coming on May 2nd, 9th & 16th: "The Word", "The Body" and "Digging". Each one will be available in person, or on-line at welcometopcf.org at any time during or after our weekly Sunday morning worship services. I have ordered a Bible Study aid for each of you that I will give out on either the 9th or the 16th. I hope you can join us. (Tools only available in person)

*The fourth offering is an invitation to eight 90-minute interactive explorations together. (Specific day and time yet to be determined) You may freely come to any, or all of the sessions. Once per week, for 8 weeks we will watch one episode of The Chosen, Season One, then discuss what may have impacted us. Each week will be about 45 minutes for the video, followed by about 45 minutes of small group discussion in groups of 6-8.*

Having been through one such multi-state Internet discussion group already, I am eager for everyone who is inclined and able to participate. If you have already seen the series – come. If you have never seen it – come. Revell & I have watched it about 4 times already and I am enthused about diving in again with you.

*Is there some theatrical, literary liberty involved in making this series? Yes. I have long been very leery of dramatic depictions of Jesus. I am deeply blessed by this one. My concern is not whether every detail is literally found in scripture. All good preaching and teaching expounds on what is literally present in The Bible. Reaching for real life application for ourselves requires it. My filter for drama is always whether or not I believe the presentation violates scripture in any way. I believe this does not.*

Jesus almost always referred to Himself as the Son of Man. I think we too often miss much of what is vital about who He is by shortchanging His humanity. Anyone inclined to come in order to find fault, please stay home. Though we will be free to question and critique, we will not be critical. There are some looking for heresy wherever they can find it. Rest assured God will take your judgement into account.

I love The Lord, and I love you, and I look forward to forever discovering more about who He is, and who He wants us to be in relationship with Him and each other.

All for Christ's sake,
