Hell on Earth

Then God said, "It is not good..."

God doesn't do stuff that is not good.

I like people, and enjoy interacting with them... most of the time. I always engage the checkers when buying groceries. I ask them how they are doing. A young man who was bagging my stuff one day was softly singing a Marvin Gaye song. I complimented him and asked how he came to know an old song like that. He said his parents always had that type of music playing in the house. The checker joined in our conversation and we all had a brief, enjoyable experience.

When doing business with local bank branches I either go through the drive up, or park and walk in to interact with a teller. God designed life as a people business. One day in 2019 I walked into a bank that must have been short-handed, and the manager was at the teller window I approached. She made it obvious I was wasting her time and could have done the transaction on-line. I have since done my business with them over the phone, and even there I am encouraged to do things on-line.

Our world is continuously maneuvering us away from person-to-person interaction. The COVID imposed isolation of many has too often resulted in personally destructive consequences. Suicides are up; among teens and children more than any ages. Some people are working hard to condemn whole groups of people they've never met. Mental health professionals are seeing huge increases in depression, fear and hopelessness.

We are made in God's image & likeness, and He meant it when He said, "It's not good for mankind to be alone." God is perfect relationship; Father, Son and Holy Spirit, and we are made for relationship with Him and each other – as Jesus prayed for us, "That they all may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me. And the glory which You gave Me I have given them, that they may be one just as We are one: I in them, and You in Me; that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them as You have loved Me."

We need each other. We need to need each other. We need to be needed by each other, and we need to be willing to be needed by each other.

Heaven is perfect relationship. Hell is perfect independence!

Randy Alcorn has said, "For the redeemed, this is as close to hell as we'll ever get. For the unredeemed, this is as close to heaven as they'll ever get." Let's live openly to make this more like heaven and less like hell.
