There are many needs in a building like ours; flooring, paint, lighting, gravel, rock walls, asphalt, technology updates, sound updates and things as simple as new urinals. PCF is looking towards a few upgrades this summer. We hope to update the sanctuary lights, hang the speakers and update a few failing stage lights. These updates alone will be about 20 thousand. If you would like to give specifically to building updates this summer or for future building projects you can now donate specifically on the website or Tithe.ly by selecting "Building Improvements" or by writing such on the memo line of cash envelopes or checks. Money given with this designation will go only towards building improvements.

Taking God On Vacation

What is your favorite type of vacation? I have some dear friends who really like Cruise Ships. I don't know that it even matters where the ship is going. They've taken more cruises to more places than I've kept track of. Some have been glorious, some... not so much. I have friends who enjoy hitting the Theme Parks; huge crowds, lots of lights, action, and high energy activity! They need time to recuperate when they get home.

Some people like to go hiking, camping, and enjoying the whole outdoors experience. Some go with only what they can carry with them, spending their money to get the best equipment so they can live like homeless people, but not in town. Some people have elaborate RV's and call it camping.

My preference – surprise, surprise – is an extended road trip in a sports car. Revell and I once took a three week road trip in our MGB GT. Travel light, travel right. We've upgraded to my C5 Corvette, at my wife's insistence; comfort and performance beyond anything the MG ever dreamed of, and better Hi-way fuel mileage too, almost 30 MPG on the open road. Sports cars limit how much gear you can take with you. But the Freeway and the twisting country road are both a pleasure, covering ground moving away from wherever you came from.

But no matter how you vacation, there comes a time when you're ready to go home. Cruise Ship, Theme Park, camping or road trip all determine what you will take with you. And one of the most important decisions is who you take with you. Sports cars have two seats. But there is someone who is always ready to go with us and leave the rat race behind. Some people seem to forget that God commanded rest, and not just weekly. He actually calls us to join Him in His rest.

Hebrews 4:9-11. There remains therefore a rest for the people of God. For he who has entered His rest has himself also ceased from his works as God did from His. Let us therefore be diligent to enter that rest, lest anyone fall according to the same example of disobedience. (3:7-4:8)

I know you know that God doesn't live at church. But do you purposefully take Him with you on vacation? Is it your plan to include Him in everything you do? He wants to be with us in everything, including restful time away from whatever our compulsory activities are; work, home maintenance, whatever. And He wants to not just go with us, but enjoy the experience together.

*He made it all, and His original, perfect purpose – before sin fouled things up – was to enjoy it all with us. They got into trouble when they excluded Him. In reality, of course, He is everywhere, all the time anyway. Psalm 139:7-12.

I have an old Bible that is my best friend I always included in my packing. Now I have several in my Digital Tablet, along with however many other books I want to read while relaxing, and they take up almost no space. God who loves us... don't leave home without Him.
