Great & Greatest

(Restaurant Style)

What is God's balance for these two essential truths in our lives?

I – Matthew 22:34-40

When the Pharisees heard that He had silenced the Sadducees, they came together. And one of them, an expert in the law, asked a question to test Him: "Teacher, which command in the law is the greatest?"

He said to him, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind. This is the greatest and most important command. The second is like it: Love your neighbor as yourself. All the Law and the Prophets depend on these two commands."

II – Matthew 28:18-20

Then Jesus came to them and said, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to Me. Therefore go and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to obey everything I have commanded you. And surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age."

(Matthew 7:21-23, Mark 16:15, John 13:34-35, I Corinthians 13:1-3)

- Is either a prerequisite to the other?
- Are both essential to the other?
- Does what we DO give people reason to believe we love them?
