Newsletter Changes!!

The Connection Point Newsletter is going to be changing starting next month. The program used for years to produce the newsletter is discontinuing. As a result, in December you may notice a major shift in how announcements happen at church. Once the plan is made, we will be sure to communicate what to expect in the future. As we enter the planning and decision stage, know we are seeking the best way to keep you up to date and informed. We appreciate your patience with this unplanned shift. Please reach out if you have any questions or concerns.

As we enter this time of change for PCF, we ask that you consider a time of prayer and fasting. Leadership is seeking the Lord for guidance and direction and many of us are following the Lord's direction to make this a focus in this transition season. There are many different ways to fast, but the primary thing is to make sure that what you are stepping away from allows you time to focus on the Lord and time seeking Him.
We pray you will join us as we turn to Him together!

Timeless Advice from Bob Dylan

The times, they are a changing

Ecclesiastes 3:1 *says, "To everything there is a season, a time for every purpose under heaven". Like the seasons or the tides, they just keep rolling along. They always have, and they always will. The question is, will we move along with them? It's been said the only thing entirely constant is change.*

Talking about some current changes we are in the midst of, a friend said to me, "I don't like change." There are times when that is wise. Proverbs 23:10 *says, "Do not move an ancient boundary marker" and* Proverbs 24:21 *says, "Do not associate with those given to change." Stability and reliability are good things.*

Psalm 15:1 & 4 *says, "Lord, who may abide in Your tabernacle? Who may dwell in Your holy hill? He who swears to his own hurt and does not change." Keeping our word is more valuable than the cost of not keeping it.*

So… what can, or sometimes should change? Age, maturity, marital status, family size & makeup, career, leadership among many others. One generation gives way to another. That's how it works. Anyone resisting that change may as well try to hold back the tide.

After 30 years with PCF, God is transferring the mantel of primary leadership from me to Charles. Though Charles has been in this church congregation for 45+ years, he started at birth… conception, really. Age, maturity, marital status, family size & makeup and career have all changed in his life during that time, and now leadership too. This has not been our doing, but God's.

I have offered Charles some of the same counsel I was given by an older pastor; Be yourself. That is going to serve both him and us well. If you'd like to know some of his many attributes, go back and watch or listen to my introduction of him Sunday, October 11th on our website at welcometopcf.org/sermons.

Will there be some changes? Certainly. We're depending on it. But nothing abrupt, or moving away from who we are. I doubt there is anyone more enthused about it than I am. God has great things in store for us. I'll still be around. The personal relationship we have shared will not be lost. I may even be more available than I was in the past.

The best life changes we make together,

We are looking for a few good men and women who would be willing to join our kids ministry team.

We have split the classrooms in order to have a more age appropriate lesson time for those kids in grade school! We have birth through kindergarten in one class and 1st through 5th grade in another. Nursery is from the start of service and the older kids start after worship. If you are interested in serving in either room please let Charles and April or Peter and Betsy know and we will give you the information needed. All kids ministry volunteers are required to complete a background check and training before starting. If you have more questions, fill out the flier in the entryway!

Men Being Men
PCF Men's Group

Meets the forth Saturday of each month. This month it will meet November 28th from 830-10am in the coffee corner. What will we do?
1) We'll eat! You are encouraged to bring some type of finger food that could be loosely considered Breakfast.
2) We will also chew on how some well known men from the Bible lived their life. This will be a time of discussion, not a lecture. We will shine the light on a guy from the Bible each month.
3) We will simply enjoy each other in some unplanned ways. Some common interests will find an opportunity among us.
